ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above, the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, A.P., Hyderabad was requested to impose a punishment of stoppage of one increment with cumulative effect against Sri B. Ashok Vardhan Reddy, formerly, Deputy Commercial Tax Officer, Lalapet Circle, Guntur, as he has committed misconduct in as much as he abused his official position by handing over the Cash Receipt Book in which two receipts signed by him without details to his subordinate and failed to maintain absolute integrity in violation of APCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

2) And whereas in the reference 3rd read above Sri B. Ashok Vardhan Reddy, Deputy Commercial Tax Officer, Office of the Deputy Commissioner (CT), Nellore has requested the Government to drop the charge and exonerate from the punishment awarded on him, as he has handed over the two receipts duly signed without details to the Senior Assistant to utilize his services during stopgap period only to facilitate the merchant public and to collect Government Revenue, but not with any malafide intention.

3) Government after careful examination of the matter in detail have decided to consider the appeal of Sri B. Ashok Vardhan Reddy, Deputy Commercial Tax Officer, Office of the Deputy Commissioner (CT), Nellore, and decided to set aside the punishment imposed in the reference 1st read above. Accordingly, the orders of punishment of stoppage of one increment with cumulative effect imposed against Sri B. Ashok Vardhan Reddy, Deputy Commercial Tax Officer is hereby set aside.

4) The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes is requested to take necessary action accordingly.
